

Actuary (M/F)

Luxembourg

Permanent contract - Full time

Notre client:

Our client is one of Europe 's leading Life Insurance Company.

Your mission:

As part of the Finance Team, reporting to the Appointed Actuary, your accountabilities will be the following:

- Support the delivery of regulatory and internal reporting requirements;
- Perform Swiss Solvency Test and Solvency II calculations;
- Identify and implement improvement measures for internal processes;
- Participate in the certification of statutory provisions and analysis for the closing of the accounts;
- Ensure correctness of figures by participating in IT specifications and testing;
- Determine New Business profitability and coordinate with the pricing department;
- Administer reinsurance treaties;
- Participate in the group project to introduce the new IFRS reporting standards until 2023;
- Provide business support to the Operations and Sales teams.

Your technical skills :

- Master's degree in Actuarial Science;
- At least 5 years of experience in actuarial or risk management areas;
- Good knowledge of Microsoft Office package, especially Excel, and Python programming skills; Prophet knowledge would be an asset;
- Experience in IFRS17 would be a real asset;
- Highly motivated team player, able to deliver results and to cope with tight deadlines;
- Proactive attitude with a strong willingness to learn;
- Powerful communicator and business fluency in English and French, German is an asset.